SUMMER 2023

Bonded Pairs – They Stick Together

CDHS has a number of bonded cat pairs in need of homes where they can live together. These pairs of cats have been together since they were kittens and depend on each other for comfort and mental and physical stimulation.

Some of the pairs live together with other cats and are doing great so we know they can be social beyond their own relationship. Please consider adding two to your home.

Lilly and Violet came into shelter about a year ago as strays found in Linton. They are about 2 years old and a bit shy but have moved to a free roam room and are becoming more social every day. The power of our volunteers and staff is helping them so much and they are ready to go to a home where they can love their humans and live a relaxing life.

Mills and Nills were rescued by a neighbor after they were thrown out of their home in the cold of January. They have been at CDHS for over a year and are about 3 years old. They were very shy when they came in, but after being neutered and relocated to a free roam room, they are now super sweet gentlemen who get along with all other cats in the room. They have made fast friends of the kittens who live with them, but they remain each other's BFFs.

Chrissy and Janet were found as 3-week-old kittens, along with their brother, Jack. Jack was adopted fairly quickly, but the girls have remained at CDHS waiting for their forever home for the past year. They were quite shy as litters, but have now become very social and loving. They live in a free roam room with several other cats and kittens and enjoy spending days on the patio and evenings snuggled up with friends.

Leo and Mateo came to CDHS as 1-month-old kittens found alongside the road next to a momma kitty who had passed away. They were adopted in December of 2021 and were recently returned to CDHS. It was a bit stressful for them to come back to the shelter, but they are becoming more relaxed and love being together, although they are a bit crowded in their kennel. They are very nice and social cats. They would love to be back in a home where they can spread out and entertain a family once again.

2-for-1 Cat/Kitten Adoption Fees Every Day at CDHS

When adopting a cat, please consider adopting two and saving two lives. We have a running promotion that allows an adopter to adopt two cats for the same adoption fee as one. We especially encourage everyone who adopts kittens to consider the 2-for-1 as kittens do so much better when living together with a littermate. They have someone to play with, nap with, and hang out with when the humans are gone from home. And there isn't much better than watching two kittens together, chasing and jumping and tussling.

CDHS also has several pairs of bonded adult cats that need a home together. The adoption fee for these kitties is also 2-for-1. You can save two and open up two spots in the shelter to save two more! 🐾

Bonded Pairs

Jafar and Gaston were adopted from CDHS as kittens about seven years ago. They were returned to the shelter a few months ago when a family member had allergies. As you can imagine, this was a stressful transition for them. They have continued to become more relaxed, but they too need to move onto a home where they have room to roam and can be comfortable and peaceful.

All these cats will make wonderful companions, enliven their homes, and bring smiles to their people daily. If you are debating about saving a life, consider saving TWO and come visit our fantastic, bonded pairs. 🐾

Shelter Report

By Sue Buchholz, Shelter Director

The Cost of Sheltering and How We Make It Work

Abandoned, neglected, injured animals – every week is a new week, but the constant is that every week, more of these unfortunate pets enter our doors. A very small number (about 3 percent so far this year) are fast turnarounds, quickly reclaimed by their people. Why are so few reclaimed? We ask this question almost daily and have found no good answers. But, I digress.

At CDHS, we make a large investment into the animals that were once cast aside. We believe these pets have worth and so we invest our time and money to provide them with care, make them healthy, teach them social skills, and get them adopted into loving homes where they will never be discarded again. It is quite the undertaking, but we do it with love in our hearts, a belief in the amazing qualities of the animals, and help from our supporters, like you, who also know the value of a well-loved pet.

Most cats and dogs that enter our shelter need several things immediately. Food, water, toys, a soft bed, and a roof over their head. Shelter staff immediately gives a distemper vaccination (if age appropriate) and dewormer. The journey to good health has started. As soon as possible, we get these new pets into our veterinarian for a health checkup and a rabies vaccination. Any minor injuries or other health problems are also addressed at this visit. If the pet entered our care with an emergent injury or health concern, we get them to the vet immediately for care and medication.

Pets are on a 10-day rabies vaccination holding period before they can interact with the public or become available for adoption. After three weeks they will need another distemper booster. If over four months of age, that vaccination will last them a year. If they are under four months of age, additional vaccinations are given when needed. We repeat the initial worming in 10 days. And at some period in between so as not to overwhelm their system, they will get a tapeworm medication as well, and a flea and tick product is applied. Every animal is spayed or neutered prior to adoption and every animal is microchipped.

Those are the very basics, and none of them are free. In fact, like everything else in the world, the costs of everything continue to rise at an alarming rate. Keep in mind there is the daily food, water, medicine, and the employees to provide these basics. We have multiple washing machines that run non-stop all day long. We pay the lights, the heat and AC, insurance, and fuel costs. The same things we all need to live, our animal friends need too!

We work hard to provide everything our shelter pets need, and we are forever grateful that our supporters provide us with monetary donations, and SO much MORE! The “more” is the UPS truck delivering donations supplied from our Amazon wish list or folks walking in the door with bags and boxes full of items we can use. Dog toys, kitty litter, over-the-counter medications, all these things help us focus our checkbook on the veterinary care and medical emergencies that come to us.

The “more” is also seen every day when our awesome volunteers show up rain or shine, hot or cold, to spend some time with our fur kids in waiting. The dedication of these volunteers absolutely astounds me every single day! Their love for the dogs is obvious with every easy walk or energy burning run around our beautiful property. We have multiple large, fenced areas for off-leash shenanigans, whether it be learning about stairs that are not that scary once conquered, or just a chillin’ hole that needs digging.

And the kitties have their fan clubs too, from quiet petting to crazy laser pointer antics, we have cats for every activity level. To simply house them on its own is a daunting task, but the volunteers truly fill the gaps and provide the one-on-one time they all desperately need.

The “more” is folks who share the love for CDHS and the pets on social media, who talk to their friends and neighbors about the importance of spaying/neutering and proper pet care, who encourage their coworkers to adopt rather than buying a pet from a pet store. Your efforts are helping pets every day.

Other costs that we have chosen to incur include supporting two great community programs. One program is Buddy’s Bowl, that helps to fill the bowls of pets in need. Our annual budget of $10,000 for this program is an investment in helping to keep pets in their homes – pets that might otherwise be entering a shelter or rescue because the cost to care for them is too great for the family. We feel the cost of the program reduces the burden on our shelter and maintains the love of a pet that a family needs, especially in times of strife.

Our other program is the Spay/Neuter Assistance Program and comes with an annual budget cost of $60,000. That’s a huge number, but it’s a number we believe is needed to enable people to get their pets spayed and neutered. I’ll say it until I can no longer speak, we cannot shelter ourselves out of our pet overpopulation crisis! The answer is preventing litters in the first place. There are simply not enough adopters for all the homeless animals already in our community. Period. No debate. The Bismarck/Mandan impound is at max capacity often, and lately has stopped the intake of animals found in the city limits. All the local rescues are at maximum capacity, and there are more rescues in this area than ever before! We truly are facing a crisis every single day, and we must invest in working to reduce the numbers of unwanted pets. Humans have created this problem, and it’s up to humans to solve it. We are doing our part.

Yes, the cost of sheltering and caring for pets in need is great, but we have been working at this worthy endeavor in our current shelter location for nearly 30 years. Every day is a new day, with different costs and different challenges, but oh, so many rewards. We plan to continue saving animals and matching them with loving families far into the future. We plan to continue spreading information about the importance of spaying/neutering and responsible pet ownership. We plan to continue taking in the broken, homeless, uncared for pets, and making them feel loved.

And we can’t do it without you. You have been there for us for decades and we hope you will continue to come along for the journey in any way you can. We are forever grateful for everyone who donates, supports, and partners with us, in every way possible, so that we can do this amazing work – providing a temporary home, love and care for our faithful, voiceless friends. They would do the same for us if they could! 🐾

Not Goodbye but Changing Things Up!

After 13 years serving as the Volunteer/Special Events Coordinator, I have made the decision to retire from my position as Volunteer Coordinator and focus on assisting Nancy, our Fundraising Coordinator, on a much more part-time basis. This will be my last Volunteer Coordinator report and I wanted to take the opportunity to say a few words.

Over the years I have met and had the pleasure of working with the most amazing volunteers, pets, employees, and members of our Board of Directors. One of the major strengths of our organization is our wonderful group of compassionate volunteers who take their jobs seriously, from the critter companions who spend hours helping our shelter pets learn to trust humans again to the volunteers that help with any event and request with a smile on their face and love in their heart. Truly, the volunteers that give so freely of their time have been the most inspiring part of my job and I have been so fortunate to meet and get to know so many fantastic people.

Working for this organization and being part of this legacy has been both a privilege and an honor and one that I simply can't close the door and walk away from, so with the support and advice from my co-workers and Sue, I will continue to work part-time on fundraising events and special projects.

Semi-retirement will give me a little more time to spend with my pets (whose total numbers now surpass the number of years I have worked for CDHS), and the flexibility to focus on a few more personal projects. Having a bit more time on my hands should even allow me to become a CDHS volunteer when the time is right. I have also met some of the neatest, cutest, and cuddliest pets on the planet, many of whom I have taken home - haha! I probably can't stop with that, of course, so I need to stick around for a while longer!

With gratitude I am not saying "Goodbye," but "See you around," because as Sue has told me many times, "No one gets off the rock..." 🐾

Our Volunteers are Pawsome!

By Mandy Schaaf, Former Volunteer and Event Coordinator

Kristen Thunshelle has been volunteering with Central Dakota Humane Society for about 10 years. She comes out every Saturday and her father Terry, who also volunteers. Kristen is one of the happiest volunteers we have here at CDHS, and her kind and gentle demeanor helps the dogs she walks and interacts with learn to trust their human friends. Kristen said she loves to give the dogs "lots of love and pets and plays with the dogs, socializes with the puppies and teaches them to sit for treats." Kristen has also helped to represent CDHS several times by carrying our banner in the Band Night Parade.

Terry and Kristen with Neil

Kristen says her favorite thing about volunteering at CDHS is, "EVERYTHING! It is just fun! I get to walk the big dogs because we have three little dogs at home. I like visiting with the staff and other volunteers and talking with potential adopters about dogs. It's rewarding to help the dogs stay healthy and happy and be more adoptable. A tired dog is a happy dog! I also get my exercise in. Why go to the gym when you can walk dogs?!"

Kristen's favorite shelter pet (past) was Neil the dog, who she thought was like a big teddy bear. He had the same coloring as her dogs at home, so she was drawn to him. Kristen has three black and white Lhasa Apso/Bichon Frise crosses. Their names are Max and Mollie (12 years old), and Libby (4 years old).

When Kristen was asked what she thought about the staff at CDHS she said, "The staff and volunteers are very nice and friendly. They are fun to talk to and they know a lot about dogs. You can see how much they love and care about all the dogs!"

Kristen always has a smile on her face, and you can see that she loves to be here at CDHS. We appreciate the time she spends with our adoptable dogs. They benefit greatly from her gentle touch and kindness. Kristen is a wonderful volunteer, and we are so happy she chose us! 🐾

Central Dakota Humane Society's SHAGGY SHUFFLE

We ended up with the Shaggy but unfortunately, no Shuffle. Our fun evening at Sertoma Park started out great with some dedicated vendors, food, ice cream, pet contests, and merch to purchase. And then Mother Nature closed it down. A large thunderstorm and soaking rain moved in, and we scrambled to move out. Although we weren't able to complete our walk, those who attended had a great time checking out items for sale, getting dog toenail trims, trying out the agility course and the slatmill treadmill, and taking treat tossing photos. We can't wait to do it all again next year. Can someone please bribe Mother Nature so she provides a nice day?

Thank you so much to our volunteers who helped plan, set up, and tear down in a hurry and to all our vendors who brought their items and shared donations with CDHS. Check out these folks on social media:

YUKI

“Hi, everybody—Yuki here! Thank you all so much for the gazillion toys that the dog-walkers and volunteers added to my CDHS Gotcha-Day bag! I’m having so much fun with them, and I’m even sharing some with my new brother. (Mom likes that thing you gave her to hang on her belt loop—she uses those plastic bags a lot.)

Leaving CDHS was scary at first. (After all, I’d been there most of my life.) There were a lot of new things to see, fursiblings to meet, and all the changes that come with a new home. I remembered my friend Rafiki from when he lived at CDHS too and had met WM from when he used to come to CDHS with Mom, so that helped a lot.

Mom says I’m rockin’ the transition like a boss, whatever that means. She says I’m a really good girl (except for learning how to beg), and she’s really glad I’m nice to the cats. I hop into the car by myself now — turns out going for rides and for walks at the lake is a lot of fun!

Thanks again everybody—I sure appreciate all the love and walks I got from you all while I lived at CDHS! After I get settled in a bit more, I’ll stop by for a visit.

– Love, Yuki

PEACHES

“Hi I’m Peaches. I have been in my new home for almost 10 months now. I had a stomachache for a long time but now I feel much better. My new dog friends and the cat that lives here stayed close and helped me feel better. I’m living my best life.

I go on walks every day. I have my own inside and outside couch and I love to spend time in my yard. It’s big and I’m little so I pretend to be in the jungle. I get zoomies sometimes and run and run and I’m so darn happy sometimes I just stare at my mom!”

– Love, Peaches

“Today is Peaches’ birthday. She is five. We are on a journey we didn’t anticipate, and we were not prepared for. She is a tiny chihuahua (too tiny) and she has quite a plethora of health conditions we are dealing with. Stomach issues that took months of vetting, hundreds of hours of research and consultation with a canine nutritionist and she is finally eating and enjoying her food. The seizures, well that is another monster I was not prepared or equipped to deal with. Luckily most have been minor except this past Thursday she had a cluster of six in 12 hrs. Some minor and some heartbreaking to witness. Luckily with the help of a wonderful team of vets at Missouri Valley Vets she came out of that situation. Possibly, during one of those seizures she injured her eye, or because she is a buggy eyed little gal, so that explains the cone. Still, we power on.... she doesn’t feel sorry for herself so I guess I can’t feel sorry for myself. She is a fighter, so we fight for her. Rescue adoption is for her forever. She lives each day to the fullest and most days is a happy, funny little gal. So, we continue to fight for more of those good days. Power on Peaches!!!!”

– From Peaches’ family:

CLEM

“Dear Friends,

I am letting you know that I have settled nicely into my new home. I am going to my new vet next week. Thank you for all of the care and kindness I was shown in your facility.

– Love, Clem”

CONNIE

“Update on Connie (formerly Luisa). She is doing amazing and has made my life so much better! She is finally steady at 45 lbs and is now my service dog! She alerts to Panic attacks and anxiety as well as cardiac alerts! She picked up on an issue I didn’t know I had and helps me with everyday life now! She has so many friends at the dog park and loves going for walks around town! Thank you again CDHS for giving me a better dog than I could have ever asked for!”

– From Connie’s family

BLUEBERRY

“Hi! Myrdith, now Blueberry, is doing so well! She loves the kids, thinks she is half dog and just loving life with us! She is queen of the house, likes lounging in her cat condo outside when we are out there and even goes walking on a leash. She had a vet checkup last week and they say she is just perfect. Thank you!”

– From Blueberry’s family

BOB ROSS

“Greetings. I am writing with an update on Bob. He is mostly doing well, but we have determined that he really is not very bright. I’ve known a lot of cats, and I’m quite sure his elevator does not go all the way to the top. We have made next to no progress on his kitchen counter etiquette. As in, he has absolutely no ability to learn that he isn’t supposed to be on the kitchen counter. Also, he has a weird biting habit. Additionally, he does weird things with his arms, like, constantly. Bob doesn’t have front legs, he has arms. Truly. On the bright side, he gets along well with his big sister, and mostly tolerates the dog. We do like him, though, and he clearly belongs with us.”

– From Bob Ross’s family:

VICTOR

“Update on Dibs (now Victor)... he is doing really well. In the beginning he was very afraid of any new rooms so took our time from area to area and he now seems much more relaxed all over the house. Pretty afraid of new visitors so will take that slowly.

– Our oldest cat was not too happy at all with this new addition so we had to take quite a bit of time with them with short meetings. It is getting better as you can see from the photo below. Victor is very passive with both of the resident cats so that helps a lot. And he actually has tons of energy, so we have daily play sessions with feathers on sticks. He is pretty goofy and sweet, and we are so happy he came to live with us.

Also on his health, we just finished weaning him off of the steroids per the vet and will see how he does. Mostly just has a watery eye so we try to keep his face clean daily.”

– From Victor’s (formerly Dibs) family:

Home Furnishing Sales to Raise Money for CDHS Pets

CDHS has been very fortunate and has been gifted some donations of high-end furnishings and home décor items – end tables, coffee tables, art, chairs of all kinds, tables, nightstands, lamps, etc. Please watch Facebook Marketplace for some items and our Facebook and the local Rummage Sale Facebook pages. We will be holding several pop-up sales of items at 1421 S. 12th St. once we get everything organized. And remember, all the proceeds go to help the pets at CDHS as they wait for their new families! 🐾

OPIE

“Opie enjoying this morning walk. He is such a good and pure dog, and we love him so much.”

RAISE FOR RESCUES

Helping Animal Shelters and Rescues Across North Dakota

North Dakota Race for Rescues has a new name and a new idea – RAISE FOR RESCUES. The event will run from Labor Day (Sept. 3), for two weeks, through Sept. 17. All you have to do is DONATE! No running, walking, doing jumping jacks, or surfing – just exercise those fingers, log on to the donation software and give with your heart. The proceeds will be divided among all the participating animal rescues and shelters, including CDHS and all local rescues, Kitty City, Furry Friends Rockin' Rescue, Purrfect Pound Pals, Miles of Love Dog Rescue. We are working on signing up many more rescues across the state of North Dakota and will have a complete list available in early August, and we will begin promoting the event on social media and in other ways in late August. Watch for more info!

Pet rescue in North Dakota is in an urgent state at the moment. There are far too many unwanted pets that are being discarded and dumped, or who wander off and no one cares to look for them. Rescues and shelters are bursting with animals, with multiple calls and messages coming in daily, asking to help with more.

Please do all you can to help these animals in need – Adopt, Foster, Share Information, and DONATE! Raise for Rescues is a great way to help out rescues and shelters across our whole state. Thank you for loving the animals! 🐾
